

„Academic cooperation – scholarship, research, development”

Warsaw, November 9th, 2010

Warsaw University of Technology

Conference Programme

09.30 Registration

10.00 Opening speeches

Enok Nygaard, Ambassador

Adam Zdzieblo, State Secretary, Ministry of Regional Development

Representative of the Ministry of Science and Higher Education

10.15 Panel discussion on Challenges in the sector of science and education in Poland and in Norway
- invited experts from both countries

11.15 Presentation of the implementation of the priority sector 2.6 Academic Research within the EEA/Norway Grants, Ministry of Science and Higher Education

11.30 Polish-Norwegian Research Fund – presentation of the fund and implemented projects, OPI

11.45 Scholarship and Training Fund - presentation of the fund and implemented projects, FRSE

12.00 Lunch

13.00 Presentations by Beneficiaries of selected projects implemented within the EEA/Norway Grants

Jagiellonian University, Collegium Medicum, project: „The protective mechanisms against neurodegeneration: prosurvival activity of endogenous peptides, L-arginine and fatty acids as potential modulators of mitochondrial function in the stressed brain.”

NORWEGIAN EMBASSY

Silesian University of Technology, project: " Development of High-Efficiency, Small-Scale Heat Pumping Units Using an Environmentally Benign Working Fluid R744 and Expansion Work Recovery with Ejectors"

Pedagogical Academy in Łódź, project: " Reducing bullying – strengthening diversity"

AGH University of Science and Technology in Kraków, project: " An international curriculum for mechatronics studies as a response to declining interest in engineering education"

Nicolaus Copernicus University, mobility project

Jagiellonian University, Institute of Environmental Sciences, project: " Factors of Population Extinction Risk, FRISC"

Warsaw University, project: " Forests as a public good. Evaluation of social and environmental benefits of forests in Poland to improve management efficiency. (POLFOREX)"

Warsaw University of Technology, project: " Thermomodernisation of public buildings conducted in accordance with the conditions of sustainable development"

15.00 – 15.15 New perspective of the EEA/Norway Grants 2009-14 and closing of the conference

